CASE NUMBER: 2:22-cr-00167

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

86. In addition to the above Standard Conditions of supervised release, the defendant is subject to the following six Additional Standard Conditions pursuant to Local Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.3, as adopted by the Judges of this District.

87. If the defendant is unemployed, the probation office may direct the defendant to register and remain active with Workforce West Virginia.

88. Defendants shall submit to random urinalysis or any drug screening method whenever the same is deemed appropriate by the probation officer and shall participate in a substance abuse program as directed by the probation officer. Defendants shall not use any method or device to evade a drug screen. *Drug testing condition suspended per the Court.

89. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant will make co-payments for drug testing and drug treatment services at rates determined by the probation officer in accordance with a court-approved schedule based on ability to pay and availability of third-party payments. *Drug testing condition suspended per the Court.

90. A term of community service is imposed on every defendant on supervised release or probation. Fifty hours of community service is imposed on every defendant for each year the defendant is on supervised release or probation. The obligation for community service is waived if the defendant remains fully employed or actively seeks such employment throughout the year.

91. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers), and shall reside in a residence free from such items.

CASE NUMBER: 2:22-cr-00167

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

93. In addition to the above Mandatory and Standard Conditions of supervised release, the probation officer recommends that the defendant be subject to the following Special Conditions of supervised release.

94. The defendant is not a resident of this district; therefore, the period of supervised release is to be administered by the district where the defendant is a legal resident and/or the district where a suitable release plan is developed.

Justification: The probation officer recommends the above condition based on the defendant's lack of ties to the Southern District of West Virginia, and his desire to reside in Millsboro, Pennsylvania, within the Western District of Pennsylvania following his release from imprisonment, where he maintains family ties.

95. The defendant shall make third party risk notification to his current or any future employer while on supervised release or probation.

Justification: The defendant committed the instant offense while performing his official duties as a medical doctor. This condition helps to protect future employers who may hire the defendant as a medical doctor, or in a position comparable to that of a medical doctor.
